1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Technology Innovation Agency (TIA) was established in terms of the TIA Act 26 of 2008 with the objective of stimulating and intensifying technological innovation in order to improve economic growth and the quality of life of all South Africans. This is achieved by developing and exploiting technological innovation.

1.2 PAIA aims to give effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights; to provide that the Information Regulator, established in terms of POPIA, must exercise certain powers and perform certain duties and functions in terms of PAIA; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

1.3 POPIA aims to promote the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies; establish minimum requirements for the processing of personal information; provide for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision making and regulate the flow of personal information across the borders of the Republic.

1.4 TIA is a public body as defined in Section 1 paragraph (b) (ii) of PAIA. Section 14 of PAIA requires public bodies to compile manuals that provide information on the types and categories of records held by such public bodies.

1.5 The TIA Manual ("the Manual") regulates access to records owned, held by or under the control of TIA, and the release of any such records by any of TIA's members, officers, employees or anyone acting on its behalf. This Manual is not exhaustive and should be read in conjunction with PAIA and POPIA.

1.6 Copies of the manual can be obtained from the Company Secretariat Office or TIA website. The Manual is currently available in English.

2. APPLICABILITY OF THE MANUAL

2.1 This manual shall apply to all employees of TIA, whether on permanent and/ or on fixed term employment contract.

3. DEFINITIONS

Term	Definitions
Information Regulator'	means the Information Regulator established in terms of section 39 of POPIA.
personal information	means information relating to an identifiable, living, natural person and, where it is applicable, an identifiable, existing juristic person, but excludes information about an individual who has been dead for more than 20 years.
processing	means any operation or activity concerning personal information, including the collection, receipt, recording, organisation, collation, storage, updating, retrieval, alteration, dissemination, distribution or making available in any other form; or merging, linking, as well as restriction, degradation, erasure or destruction of information.
record	means any recorded information, regardless of form or medium, in the possession or under the control of the responsible party.
responsible party'	means TIA, which is the party that processes personal information, determines the purpose for which the personal information is needed and can outsource a part or all the processing of the personal information to a third party.

5. TIA PARTICULARS

5.1. Structure and Functions

5.1.1 Structure

The TIA structure consists of a Board as stipulated in the TIA Act, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), business units and support departments, each headed by a Divisional Executive reporting to the CEO. The diagram below demonstrates the TIA structure.

5.1.2 Function

5.1.2.1 TIA is a national public entity that serves as the key institutional intervention to bridge the innovation chasm between research and development from higher education institutions, science councils, public entities, and private sector, and commercialisation.

5.1.2.2 The object of the Agency is to support the State in stimulating and intensifying technological innovation in order to improve economic growth and the quality of life of all South Africans by developing and exploiting technological innovations.

5.1.2.3 TIA services can be categorised in three pillars, namely, financial support, non-financial support and funding instruments.

5.1.2.4 Through financial support TIA aims to source investments and provide funding for technology innovative opportunities, drive commercialisation and exploitation of technology innovative opportunities, promote the national and local technology innovation agenda through thought leadership initiatives and to participate, coordinate and contribute to building the Nation System of Innovation and seek alignment with key stakeholders.

5.1.2.5 TIA's uses various funding instruments in line with its Investment Framework Policy.

5.3. Availability of Guides on PAIA AND POPIA

5.3.1 Section 10 of PAIA requires the Information Regulator to update and make available the existing guide that has been compiled by the South African Human Rights Commission containing such information, in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA and POPIA.

5.3.2 Enquiries regarding the guide can be addressed to the Information Regulator at:

Name	The Information Regulator (South Africa)
Physical Address	SALU Building, 316 Thabo Sehume Street, Pretoria
Telephone Number	012 406 4818
Fax Number	086 500 3351

5.4. Access to records held by TIA

5.4.1 Procedure for requesting access

5.4.1.1 A request for access to a record must be made on the prescribed request form, Form A, to the Deputy Information Officer. The form is available on TIA's website.

5.4.1.2 If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Deputy Information Officer.

5.4.1.3 If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

5.4.1.4 The prescribed form must be sent to TIA via email, post, or hand delivered to TIA.

5.4.1.5 The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any further processing can take place.

5.4.1.6 The form must be adequately completed to allow TIA official to identify the following:

5.4.1.6.1 Who the requester is;

5.4.1.6.2 What record(s) are being requested;

5.4.1.6.3 What the purpose is for requesting the information;

5.4.1.6.4 Contact details in the form of an email address, and/or postal address; and

5.4.1.6.5 The manner in which the requester wishes to be informed of the decision.

5.4.1.7 It is important to note that access is not automatic. The requester must identify the right they are seeking to exercise or protect and explained why the record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

5.4.1.8 The requester will be notified in the manner indicated by the requester on the request form whether the request has been approved.

5.5. Decision

5.5.1 TIA will, within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons to that effect.

5.5.2 The 30-day period within which TIA must decide whether to grant or refuse the request may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of TIA and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30-day period. TIA will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

5.5.3 TIA may, and must in certain instances, refuse access to records on any of the grounds set out in Chapter 4 of Part 3 of PAIA, which include:

- 5.5.3.1 that access would result in the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party;
- 5.5.3.2 the necessity of protecting the commercial information of a third party or of TIA itself;
- 5.5.3.3 the necessity of protecting the confidential information of a third party;
- 5.5.3.4 the necessity of protecting the safety of individuals and protecting property;
- 5.5.3.5 that a record constitutes privileged information for legal proceedings;
- 5.5.3.6 the necessity of protecting the research information of a third party or TIA itself;
- 5.5.3.7 the necessity of protecting the commercial activities of TIA or the economic interests and financial welfare of the Republic of South Africa;
- 5.5.3.8 the operations of TIA; and
- 5.5.3.9 manifestly frivolous or vexatious requests, or substantial and unreasonable diversion of resources.

5.6. Categories of records held by TIA

5.6.1 TIA holds records applicable to its operations and in terms of the relevant statutes. Access to the following records can only be obtained by means of a formal request that includes but are not limited to:

- 5.6.1.1 TIA policies and procedures;
- 5.6.1.2 client/applicant records processed and/or generated as part of the TIA funding process;

- 5.6.1.3 minutes of meetings and decision records;
- 5.6.1.4 post-investment monitoring and evaluation reports;
- 5.6.1.5 personnel files (includes staff, TIA directors, co-opted committee members and nominee directors);
- 5.6.1.6 TIA's financial records;
- 5.6.1.7 TIA's operational records;
- 5.6.1.8 agreements and memoranda of understanding;
- 5.6.1.9 TIA's research, and scientific or technical information; and
- 5.6.1.10 bid documents.

5.7. Records which are available without a request

5.7.1 Records that are automatically available include but are not limited to:

- 5.7.1.1 The Technology Innovation Agency Act (Act No 26 of 2008);
- 5.7.1.2 Statutory records;
- 5.7.1.3 TIA printed and electronic publications (marketing brochures, newsletters, booklets);
- 5.7.1.4 Information published on the TIA website;
- 5.7.1.5 Published Annual Reports and other reports.

5.8. Services available to members of the public

5.8.1 Services rendered by TIA revolve around its mandate and core objectives set out in the TIA Act relating to its objective as being to support the State in stimulating and intensifying technological innovation in order to improve economic growth and the quality of life of all South Africans by developing and exploiting technological innovations.

5.9. Processing of personal information

5.9.1 To safeguard the privacy and protection of personal information, all personal information processed by TIA is managed in terms of the TIA Policies and the POPIA principles.

5.10. Purpose of processing personal information

5.10.1 Personal information will only be used for the purpose for which it was collected and agreed. This may include but is not limited to:

- 5.10.1.1 assessment of applications for funding;
- 5.10.1.2 provision of appropriate TIA products and services;
- 5.10.1.3 confirmation, verification and updating of client/applicants' details;
- 5.10.1.4 conducting credit reference searches or verification;
- 5.10.1.5 maintenance of client records;

- 5.10.1.6 client relationship management and support;
- 5.10.1.7 general administration, financial and tax purposes;
- 5.10.1.8 compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;
- 5.10.1.9 fraud and crime prevention and detection;
- 5.10.1.10 to hold and administer securities;
- 5.10.1.11 recruitment;
- 5.10.1.12 employee management and support; and
- 5.10.1.13 market research, customer satisfaction surveys and statistical analysis.

5.11. Categories of data subjects

5.11.1 The categories of data subjects are not exhaustive but are meant to give a broad indication of the data subjects:

- 5.11.1.1 TIA clients (business partners), potential clients;
- 5.11.1.2 TIA current and former employees and their families (children, spouses, parents);
- 5.11.1.3 TIA suppliers, service providers, and professional consultants;
- 5.11.1.4 TIA Board members and nominee directors;
- 5.11.1.5 Investee companies including their shareholders, employees, suppliers and service providers;
- 5.11.1.6 Banking institutions;
- 5.11.1.7 unsuccessful applicants for funding and employment as well as bidders; and
- 5.11.1.8 visitors to TIA premises.

5.12. Categories of recipients with whom personal information is shared

5.12.1 TIA sometimes shares personal information it processes with the individual themselves and with other third parties. Where necessary or required TIA may share information with:

- 5.12.1.1 registered financial services providers;
- 5.12.1.2 other development fund institutions;
- 5.12.1.3 personal information verification and credit reference agencies;
- 5.12.1.4 regulatory and reporting authorities, government institutions;
- 5.12.1.5 professional advisors and consultants;
- 5.12.1.6 suppliers and service providers;
- 5.12.1.7 current, past and prospective employers;
- 5.12.1.8 survey and research organisations; and
- 5.12.1.9 police forces and courts.

5.13. Trans-Border flows of personal information

5.13.1 TIA may from time to time, in the execution of its mandate, need to transfer personal information of data subjects with third parties in other countries. TIA shall ensure that it complies with POPIA in the dissemination of such information. Such transfer will only be done if one of the following requirements are met:

- 5.13.1.1 the foreign recipients of personal information are subject a law, binding corporate rule, or a binding agreement which contains provisions substantially similar to POPIA in relation to the processing and transfer of personal information;
- 5.13.1.2 the data subject consents to the transfer; or
- 5.13.1.3 The transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between the data subject and the responsible party; or
- 5.13.1.4 The transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract concluded in the interest of the data subject between the responsible party and the third party; or
- 5.13.1.5 The transfer is for the benefit of the data subject and it is not practical to obtain the consent of the data subject.

5.14. Information security measures to protect personal information

- 5.14.1 It is a requirement of POPIA to adequately protect the personal information held by the responsible party to avoid unauthorised access and use of your personal information. All personal information processed by TIA is managed in terms of the TIA's Information Security Management Policy.
- 5.14.2 Security controls and processes shall be reviewed regularly to ensure that personal information is secure.
- 5.14.3 The following procedures are in place to protect personal information:
 - 5.14.3.1 The TIA information officer is responsible for the compliance with the conditions of the lawful processing of personal information and other provisions of POPIA;
 - 5.14.3.2 TIA's processes shall be updated to ensure that consent is received from data subjects for the collection, processing, distribution and storage of their information as required POPIA;
 - 5.14.3.3 data subjects shall be advised of their rights during the information collection stage;
 - 5.14.3.4 access to information and systems containing personal information shall be limited to authorised users in line with their roles and responsibilities;
 - 5.14.3.5 requests for access to information and requests for information received from outside TIA shall be managed in line with this manual;
 - 5.14.3.6 when using third parties to process personal information, the said third parties shall be required to sign a service level agreement guaranteeing their commitment to the Protection of personal information; and
 - 5.14.3.7 training and awareness on the TIA Policies and POPIA to ensure compliance.

5.15. Objective to the processing of personal information

- 5.15.1 A data subject who wishes to object to the processing of personal information must submit the objection to the responsible party on Form 1.

5.15.2 The responsible party, or a designated person, must render such reasonable assistance as is necessary, free of charge, to enable the data subject to make an objection on Form 1.

5.16. Correction/Deletion of personal information

5.16.1 A data subject who wishes to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information must submit a request to the responsible party on Form 2.

5.16.2 The responsible party, or a designated person, must render the necessary assistance to enable a data subject to complete Form 2 free of charge.

5.17. Remedies

5.17.1 Any requester dissatisfied with any decision taken by TIA in respect of a request for access to a record can either lodge an internal appeal to the relevant authority, or approach the Information Regulator, or apply to a court with appropriate jurisdiction for relief. An internal appeal must be lodged on the prescribed form, Form B.

5.18. Availability of the manual

5.18.1 The Manual is published on the TIA website and will be made available:

5.18.1.1 on TIA's website;

5.18.1.2 at the TIA's head office for public inspection during normal business hours;

5.18.1.3 to any person upon request and upon the payment of a reasonable amount; and

5.18.1.4 to the Information Regulator upon request.

5.19. Prescribed fees

5.19.1 The prescribed fee for requesting and accessing information must be paid by the requester before the TIA contact persons can make any records requested available to the requestor.

5.19.2 The request fee payable by every requester, other than a personal requester, is R35.00. The fee for a copy of the manual is R0.60 for every photocopy of an A4 size page or part thereof. For any request that would require more than six hours to access or prepare for disclosure, one third of the prescribed access fee shall be payable as a deposit by the requester.
